Key word: a military serviceman, an oath to the country, an oath to the Motherland, commanders, loyalty to the oath

Taking an oath to the country is an important and unforgettable event that happens once in a young man's life. By swearing an oath to the Motherland, a military serviceman takes a place in the ranks of the truly brave. The swearing-in ceremony of the first-round cadets admitted to higher military educational institutions of the Ministry of Defense this season will be held with great ceremony. At such an event organized at the Armed Forces Academy, the cadets of the Military Medical Faculty of this leading higher military educational institution and the Tashkent Medical Academy took an oath to the Motherland. It will be attended by Colonel Hamdam Karshiev, Deputy Minister of Defense for Educational and Ideological Affairs, Colonel Zakir Saifuddinov, Commander of the Tashkent Military District, as well as members of the Public Council under the Ministry of Defense and parents.

The territory of the Chirchik Higher Tank Command and Engineering Educational Institution also became festive due to an important event. Relatives of cadets, representatives of state and public organizations, and veterans were dear guests of the event. The words of true bravery, loyalty and loyalty were expressed by the future officers in the testimony of their loved ones. The ceremony of cadets taking oath to the Motherland was held at a high level at the Military Institute of Information and Communication Technologies and Communication of the Ministry of Defense.

- The excitement of an unforgettable day is special, - says cadet Gulam Kadirov. - My dream has come true. As I took the oath to the Motherland in front of my comrades, commanders, and parents, I thought of the entire people of Uzbekistan. I felt that I had taken on a great responsibility and a great trust. The military orchestra and cheerful singers performed songs and songs glorifying bravery, patriotism and the motherland, as well as demonstration performances by the sons of the country. Congratulatory speakers wished the future officers great success and good luck, and that they would always live up to their trust. All the joy in the festive atmosphere. But there were probably not those who felt happy as parents. They were so happy and joyful... Children's achievements are theirs first and foremost.

A solemn ceremony dedicated to the oath to the Motherland and the oath of entry into the service of the National Guard of the Republic of Uzbekistan of the first stage cadets of the Public Security University of the Republic of Uzbekistan was held.

The ceremony was attended by the commander of the National Guard of the Republic of Uzbekistan, deputies of the Legislative Chamber of the Oliy Majlis of the Republic of Uzbekistan, heads of educational institutions of the armed forces, well-known state and public figures, family members of cadets and children of orphanages. Under the sounds of a solemn march, the battle flags of the State and the National Guard were solemnly brought to the Saf field. Head of the university, Colonel M. Rustambaev recognized that the oath is sacred for every defender of the country, loyalty to the oath is considered an important characteristic of true patriots.

After that, the cadets took a solemn oath to fulfill the responsible and honorable duty, which is considered sacred for every defender of the homeland, in any situation. They swear to be loyal to the country and the people of Uzbekistan. A ceremony of "swearing in" of the officers of the Internal Affairs bodies was held at the MIA Training Institute. The leadership and responsible staff of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Republic of Uzbekistan, personnel and professors of the Institute of Professional Development and representatives of a number of other public organizations, parents and relatives of the listeners, as well as representatives of the mass media took part in the event.

At present, more than 400 senior officers of internal affairs bodies are enrolled in the next initial training course at the institute. They took an oath of love and loyalty to the country and loyalty to the President of our country when they were accepted into the service of the internal affairs bodies. Speaking at the event, Major General Azizjon Ikramov, Deputy Minister of Internal Affairs of the Republic of Uzbekistan, congratulated the audience of the institute on taking the "oath". The adoption of the Deputy Minister of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan "On measures to introduce a qualitatively new system of training professional personnel for internal affairs bodies" No. emphasized that it is important to provide.

Today, the fundamental reforms implemented in our country place great responsibility on the employees of the internal affairs bodies. It is a requirement of the times that every employee serving in the internal affairs system - a leader, a sergeant, an officer, above all, should be a patriot, have high physical and military training, and be a mature specialist in the field he occupies. As you all know, the Higher Education Institute was reorganized based on the decision of the head of state. Bringing the material and technical base of the higher education institution up to the level of modern requirements, increasing the scientific potential of professors and teachers, achieving harmony of theory and practice in teaching students, paying special attention to the use of interactive methods of teaching in the educational process, and training high-spirited, new-thinking, professional personnel.

Training sessions focus on providing the trainees with professional, legal, socio-political, combat, physical, mental, and medical training. In the training courses, special attention is paid to the actual tasks of internal affairs bodies promoted by the Head of our State, their content and importance, to familiarization with the requirements of the new regulatory and departmental legal documents adopted in the field and to increase the efficiency of service activities based on them.

Each listener was given instructions on how to work independently, improve their knowledge, skills and abilities, professional and behavior culture. In order to ensure the implementation of the requirements of the "concept of organizing spiritual and educational work in internal affairs bodies", in order to expand the spiritual outlook of the employees of internal affairs bodies, after the training sessions, an excursion to museums and theaters was organized, each listener was told that "Serving the motherland and the people with loyalty is our highest duty!" they promised to serve based on their conceptual idea.
